SPECIAL ISSUE

HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

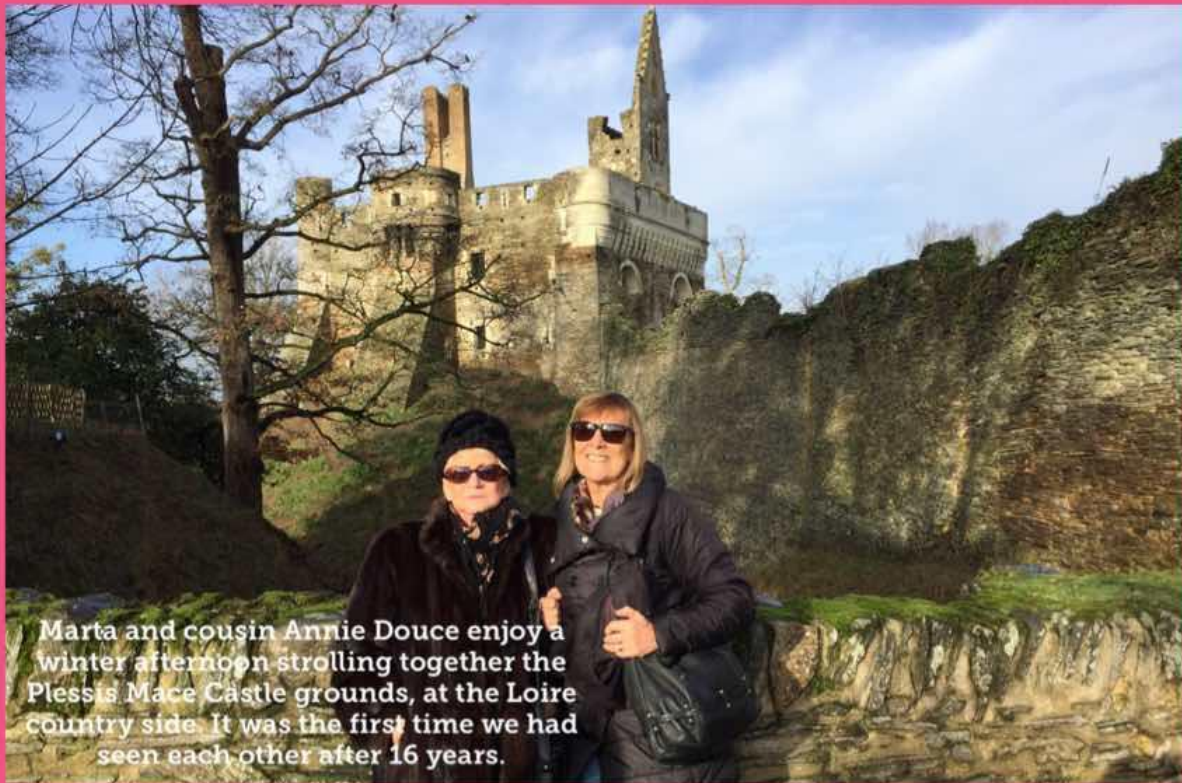

On Monday, January 28, Freda Scott Giles, delivered the Charter Lecture, one of the feature events of Founders Day at the University of Georgia.

“Sisters going Places”

In these issue some Sisters will share their wonderful experiences, funny stories and magical trips from the last year. I hope you all enjoy getting to know us more.

Marta and cousin Annie Douce enjoy a winter afternoon strolling together the Plessis Mace Castle grounds, at the Loire country side. It was the first time we had seen each other after 16 years.

Can anyone guess where the picture was taken? Extra credit will be awarded to those who remember the river's name.

PIC•COLLAGE

From Carolyn T. Howel

I have as guests, Manuel and Gladys Carrizo, from Salta, Argentina. Manuel was an exchange student with Youth For Understanding in 1982 -83 at Cedar Shoals High School. He was in my advanced class of Spanish and actually won First Place in Georgia on the National Spanish Exam in the Native Speaker category! He went with me to St. Augustine for three days as I took my Spanish Club on an excursion. He is an accountant as is his wife. They have 5 adult children that have achieved so much in their careers. They are an absolute delight! They came for a high school reunion in 2017 and stayed with me for 5 days. I took them to the High Museum and the Atlanta Botanical Gardens. This time they are only staying 3 days. They brought their 26 and 21 year old daughters to Disney World in January 22. The daughters had to leave to go back to their studies. They went to Clayton, Ga. where Manuel's host family lives. They are the Nixon's. Their son is part owner of the Dillard House. I know most are familiar with this famous restaurant! Unfortunately, they are leaving tomorrow, Saturday the 9th to return to Clayton and then Monday on to the Atlanta Airport!

This afternoon, at 3 some of my neighbors will come for refreshments to meet them and Manuel and Gladys will give a demonstration of the Tango and the Milonga! They can really dance!

Sisters keep going places...

David and I went to New England in September. Part of our stay in Boston included a Boston Red Sox game at Fenway Park.

This picture is in front of a restaurant in my town Navas, one hour from Barcelona. In the picture are ours two sons Adalbert and Marcel. It was August the 31st las year 2018. We were celebrating our 60th wedding anniversary. First, there was a ceremony at the church and then a big lunch at the restaurant with a big cake. We were 70 people among close family and friends. We had a very good time.

From Laura Viera:

My Christmas and New Year were spent in Uruguay with my husband (first picture) and family. I enjoyed the time looking for Santa with my nephews and at the farm with the rest of the family. In the bottom picture of my grandma and all her grandchildren and great-grandkids.
